LONGWOOD COLLEGE

FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA

FOREWORD

As you, the Longwood Students, turn the pages of this book and see again the steps of Longwood, we hope that you will be reminded of progressive inspiration and knowledge gained during your college days. For freshmen the long trend upward looks almost impossible, and for seniors the advance seems only an approach to greater achievement. We hope that you will think of your experiences at Longwood as steps leading toward a full and rich life.

The Staff

DEDICATION

DR. CHARLES GEORGE GORDON MOSS

It is with great pleasure that we dedicate the 1953 Virginian to Dr. Charles George Gordon Moss, Professor of History and formerly advisor to the Student Government Association. Through his interest, friendliness, and wonderful sense of humor he has endeared himself to Longwood College.

STEP BY STEP WE

LIVE AND LEARN...

The steps at Longwood have been worn down by the feet of hundreds of students, all striving as the college days pass, to go constantly onward, upward, and outward. The advance has not been too abrupt for pleasure or too gentle for stimulation.

DR. DABNEY S. LANCASTER
PRESIDENT

When we put "first things first" at Longwood College, we think of Dr. Lancaster. He is constantly thinking of the advancement of our college and its students. Whether we hear him in a student-body assembly, in an office conference, or in a chance meeting, he inspires and encourages us.

CLASS HISTORY

"Though you walk through a storm, Keep your chin up high."

PAST, present and always, these are the words we've come to live by. And now in the last of our four years, we all feel that we can walk alone with only an occasional stubbed toe, but never a fall.

This year, in spite of its many vicissitudes, has been one of our most successful. Mrs. Eastham's and Tippy's "welcome home" was enough to make anyone start the year with smiles. Then came capping, and we felt that we had at last reached the ultimate. We were full-fledged seniors. Oh, the many hours passed talking about student teaching! Who'll ever forget the perennial "What way the high school—please?"

As our last chance at Circus was fast approaching, everyone lost herself in cooperative work and under the marvelous direction of Betsy Hankins and Barbara Caskey, turned out our memorable "Invention Interlude." Trains, autos, the Russian—all turned the stage into a live museum, but Caskey held the spotlight as our lovely queen.

Before long we were pressing snow-white formals for "June in December." Margie Sutphin, dance chairman, earned our warmest thanks for making it a memorable evening. It was especially memorable for our honorary classman, Mary Helen Cook, who lit up the room with her smile and her diamond, and for our honor underclassman, Bobbie Assaid.

Spring came, and one bright day we managed, at last, to put something over on the poor underclassmen. While they basked in the warmth of a professor's lecture, we basked in the warmth of the kind sun and breezes at the lake. Sneak Day was, indeed, all we had anticipated.

Eighty voices, dulled by tears, rang out in Senior Assembly as we sang the hits and misses of our four years at Longwood. Then with final examinations behind us and our thoughts on the future, we marched into the auditorium for the last time and there, with shaking hands, received our degrees. This piece of sheepskin ended college fun and sorrow, and all the things that made those days life rather than mere existence. With mixed and rather shattered emotions, we said good-by to the darling of our hearts, Charles Hop, to our hard-working officers, and to many of our dearest friends. Although we must go, we leave behind our love and best wishes to all who have shared our college days with us.

Senior float put inventions in style.

THE ACTIVITIES

Student Government Association

Koch, Peery, L. Hall, Islin

LUCY PAGE HALL.....President
 MARY HURT PEERY.....Vice President
 ELIZABETH ISLIN.....Secretary
 ELEANOR KOCH.....Treasurer

THE Student Government Association is composed of all women students in the college. It is directed by a council elected from and by the student body. The purpose of the Student Council, which is a representative group of students, is to uphold the rules, regulations, and ideals of the college, and to unite the students and help them develop self-reliance and a sense of responsibility. Our activities for the year began with Freshman Orientation Week, capably directed by Lucy Page Hall.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank Dr. Lancaster and Miss Gleaves as well as the student body and faculty, for their efforts and cooperation.

THE Young Women's Christian Association began the new school year by welcoming the freshmen as they arrived at Longwood. During that first week, we entertained these new arrivals at the traditional Big Sister-Little Sister Party and at a formal reception at which they met the faculty members. Every student at Longwood is a member of the Y. W. C. A. We were fortunate in having Miss Jessie Patterson as our new advisor.

In February Longwood observed Religious Emphasis Week with Mr. Al Edwards as the inspirational speaker. The theme of the week was "Christian Dynamic in a Shaken World."

Prayers played a major role during the year in the activities sponsored by the Y. W. C. A.

House Council

Seated: Castros, Marsh, Johns, Langhorne, A. Snyder
Standing: Lancaster, Branch, Assaid

PAJAMA-CLAD figures reporting to house mothers about 11:00 are a familiar sight. We recognize them as the efficient hall presidents who report that "all is well" and that "all are present or accounted for" on their halls. These hall presidents, together with the house presidents—Ann Snyder, Mary Dabney Langhorne, June Johns, and Beverly Marsh—form the backbone of our House Council. Their work is often unseen, but their responsibility is large. They are the behind-the-scene members who make our organization function as it should. Also, the cooperation and the helpful spirit of the house mothers and hostesses—Miss Hamner, Mrs. Hudson, Mrs. Eastham, Mrs. Tabb, Mrs. Rex, and Mrs. Holladay—are invaluable. They are our friends and counselors and are always willing to help us with any problems that we may have.

To maintain an atmosphere of quiet for study and harmonious living is the purpose of the House Council. This has been a successful year for the group, and much of the success is due to the efforts of Helen Castros, president of the House Council. The other officers who have served this year are the following: Natalie Lancaster, vice president; Jane Branch, secretary; and Barbara Assaid, treasurer. For the second time, House Council sponsored a booth at Circus, enlisting the art of "Mlle. Tippy-toe Tabb," fortune-teller superb.

Supporting the council, each member of the student body has done her share in making dormitory-living a truly pleasant experience during the year.

Alpha Kappa Gamma

ALPHA Kappa Gamma is an honorary society formed for the purpose of recognizing students who have proved themselves outstanding in constructive leadership. Character is the first consideration for membership in the organization. Twenty-five years ago, under the guidance of Miss Florence H. Stubbs, Alpha Kappa Gamma was formed through the co-ordinate interests of girls from Queens College, the University of South Carolina, and Farmville State Teachers' College.

Joan Circle again this year found its guidance in the capable persons of Miss Stubbs and Miss Elizabeth Burger. The officers were: Lucy Page Hall, president; Polly Brothers, vice president; Mary Denny Wilson, secretary; and Anne Jones, treasurer.

Sarah Harvie, Ann Keith Hundley, and Betty Tyler were with us at the beginning of the year. Later the following girls were tapped: Betty Abbitt, Pat Altwegg, Celeste Bishop, Barbara Caskey, Anne Crowder, Helen Castros, Helen Tanner, Janet Wiggins, and Mary Denny Wilson.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of Alpha Kappa Gamma was celebrated on our campus in October with Joan Circle acting as host to delegates from North and South Carolina. Dean Gillie A. Larew of Randolph-Macon Woman's College was our outstanding speaker. On this occasion, she was made an honorary member of Joan Circle.

Our annual circus also came in October. The week-end activities were carried out by our festive theme, "Carnivali Festivali."

To foster high ideals, to promote co-ordination of various college activities, and to preserve the ideals and traditions of the college—these are the purposes of Alpha Kappa Gamma.

The Rotunda

EDITORIALS, sports reviews, features, school activities, columns—you'll find them all in the Rotunda, the eyes and ears that interpret our college life. Making the Rotunda possible is an energetic staff which constantly strives to uphold the ideals of good journalism. Week after week we follow the familiar routine that goes on behind the scenes of the college bi-monthly newspaper.

Janet Wiggins, our editor-in-chief, was the newspaper's head man this year. While directing the Rotunda's path, she was paving the path for future staff members. Business manager, Celeste Bishop, handled the book work with accuracy. As managing editor Jean Jinnett served as the editor's right-hand man. Ann Thomas, desk editor, was kept busy approving and revising news stories. News editor, Shirley Ward, assigned stories and sent reporters all over the campus seeking information about college activities. Barbara Caskey, humor columnist, became known for her hilarious "Miss Take." Bunny Gibson, exchange editor, gathered ideas and criticisms of competitive publications, and Margie Steele Sutphin, art editor, added life to the editorial page with her linoleum cuts. Mrs.

Meade L. Shackleford, our new advisor, gave invaluable suggestions and helped us over hard spots.

Publication activities this year included the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association convention at V. P. I. in December. Another event of our year was the faculty talent show with the proceeds going to the Rotunda. Members of the faculty and administration participated in three hilarious skits. Caskey and Betsy Welbon were our script writers. The roars of laughter from the audience seemed to say it was a success. The Rotunda is indebted to its readers, to its supporters, to its interested patrons, for a truly wonderful year.

The Colonnade

THE Colonnade, Longwood College literary magazine, has strived to achieve its three guiding aims. First, the Colonnade has presented the creative literary efforts of the students. Each year the Colonnade sponsors a creative-writing contest. All students who have any literary talent are urged to participate in the contest. The March issue featured "Stained" by Jean Jinnett, first prize winning short story, and "The Old Man of the Streets" by Jackie Marshall, second prize story. The prize winning stories were selected by a panel of judges: Mrs. Shackleford, Mrs. Simkins, Miss Hiner, Dr. Schlegel, and Helen Tanner. The Colonnade has presented a variety of student literary writings including poetry, essays, short stories, and humorous articles.

The second aim of the Colonnade has been to publish articles on contemporary artists. In the first issue Barbara White expertly handled a discussion of the Englishman, Mr. Graham Greene. In the second issue Barbara Southern did an excellent job on the very difficult topic of Wallace Stevens and his poetic technique. In completing the cycle of articles on modern artists, the Colonnade asked Denise Montagne to do an article on her fellow-countryman, Jean Cocteau.

The third aim of the Colonnade has been to reflect a college atmosphere as found in the college's institutions, organizations, and students. For this purpose, the staff was happy to have the Longwood Players featured in the second issue. In the third issue, excerpts from Liz Stone's honor thesis were given a prominent place.

In producing the Colonnade, Betty Collier, as editor-in-chief, had on her staff Eloise Macon, managing editor, and Jean Mercer, business manager. Barbara White was literary editor of the short stories; Helen Tanner, of the essays; Pat Taylor, of poetry. The many illustrations of Libby Forrest and her staff added to the attractiveness of the magazine. Without the able guidance of the sponsor, Miss Lucile Jennings, and the advisors—Mrs. Shackleford, Miss Ross, and Mr. Coyner—the Colonnade could not have achieved its aims.

The Virginian

BEFORE the end of May, we the staff of the 1953 Virginian, were eagerly beginning our work with Ann Keith Hundley, editor. When fall came, we really settled down to business. Mary Anne King, our photographic editor, had her hands full scheduling individual and group pictures. Each time we kept our fingers crossed for good weather. Fifi Carter was busy seeing the heads of all organizations to find out how many pages they wanted. Pat Altwegg, our business manager, and Mary Denny Wilson, her assistant, buckled down on the finance end of the '53 Virginian. Three freshmen were chosen to work on the staff. They were Fanny Scott, Helen Warriner, and Helen Marie Wood.

With the advice and help of Miss Bedford, our art advisor, Ann Carter Wendenburg did an excellent job with our art work. She, Mary Anne King, Lou Kitts, and Ann Keith Hundley represented The Virginian and Longwood College at the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association Conference at V. P. I. in December. We were happy to bring back a certificate of honorable mention for the '52 Virginian.

After Christmas, Polly Brothers, our literary editor, was in charge of collecting all the write-ups for the annual. We were pleased to learn that Miss Foster, our literary advisor, truly enjoyed reading our material.

Our many thanks go to Mr. Mac. He set us straight many times, but kept reminding us, when the going was rough, that "after twenty-nine years you learn a few tricks of the trade."

When that important day in May came, we, the staff of the '53 Virginian, were sure that our long hours of work had been rewarded.

Student Standards

First row: T. Moore, Castros, Mann, B. Tyler, Surphin, Worthington, S. Ward, McClung, Dr. Laing
Second row: Shuff, Assaid, L. Hall, Steck, Kitts, Pearce, Kile, A. Jones

STUDENT Standards again carried on its work of settling problems arising between the student body, and the faculty and the administration. Our biggest project for the year was combining the main college drives for donations to different groups, into a College Chest. This means there will be only one drive for the entire year, and a proportionate amount of the money received will be given for each of the drives.

One committee worked toward developing an announcement book to be placed in the Home Office. All meetings held in the College by outside organizations are to be recorded in this book. This will assist the home-office staff and give ready information about such meetings.

A suggestion box was made and placed under the bulletin board in the hall leading to the post-office. This was done to give students an opportunity to offer suggestions for projects they would like for Student Standards to undertake.

Anne Shuff was appointed reporter to see that news about the activities of Student Standards was publicized in the Rotunda. Also, the main bulletin boards are kept clean and up-to-date.

We express our gratitude to the faculty sponsors for their guidance, advice, and hard work: Miss Burger, Mrs. Cover, Miss Draper, Miss Gleaves, Mrs. Tabb, Mr. Laing, and Dr. Earley.

Joanne Steck served as chairman of Student Standards; Lucy Mann as secretary; Libby McClung as chairman of the year's calendar; Peggy Worthington as chairman of the regulations committee.

Kappa Delta Pi

THE Beta Epsilon Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, since its founding in 1928, has had as its main purpose the encouragement of high professional, intellectual, and personal standards.

Our officers for the year were: Sonia Kile, president; Nancy Driskill, vice president; Pat Taylor, secretary; Barbara Cotton, treasurer; and Lou Jamison, historian. Under the wise guidance of Dr. Ethel Sutherland, these officers worked faithfully to merit the confidence placed in them.

In November the names of sixteen Kadelphians were added to the chapter roll. The new members were Pat Altwegg, Frances Andrews, Barbara Blackman, Elizabeth Gillikin, Carolyn Graham, Fay Greenland, Doris Horne, Beverly Johnson, Mary Anne King, Eugenia Korahaes, Lucille Mann, Ann Moore, Betty Jane Newson, Ann Thomas, Else Wentte, and Sylvia West.

In December Miss Patterson spoke to us about the opera Lohengrin. We also enjoyed the interesting program presented to us by Dr. Earley. Many of the college officials were invited to attend our banquet in January. We were honored to have as our guest speaker Dr. J. V. Cunningham of the University of Virginia. His discussion of modern poetry proved very interesting.

In February Sonia Kile and Mary Anne King journeyed to Atlantic City to the District Convention of Kappa Delta Pi. New members were initiated in March. We honored the freshman and sophomores who ranked in the upper quartile of their respective classes at a reception in the spring.

Pi Delta Epsilon

Pi Delta Epsilon, a national honorary journalism fraternity, seeks to promote on this campus a closer coordination between the various college publications and to give recognition to the students who have worked for one of the three major college publications.

This year, Barbara Caskey was president; Nancy Lawrence, secretary; Jeanne Mercer, treasurer; and Bunny Gibson, historian. Mr. Boyd Coyner, Mr. Harry Lancaster, Mr. T. A. McCorkle, and Dr. Marvin Schlegel are honorary members, with Dr. Schlegel acting as our advisor.

We initiated eight new members this fall: Pat Altwegg, Barbara Caskey, Betty Collier, Ann Keith Hundley, Nancy Lawrence, Jeanne Mercer, Helen Tanner, Barbara White. The five former members were Celeste Bishop, Bunny Gibson, Jean Jin-nett, Joanne Steck, Pat Taylor, and Janet Wiggins.

Our activities this year centered around the publication of the "Splinter," a new leather-bound calendar book. In this book, we used twelve scenes of the campus. Pi Delta Epsilon hopes to work with the Alumnae Association in the years to come and with its help continue the publication of the "Splinter."

Pi Delta Epsilon strives to teach the ethics, techniques, and mechanics of journalism. The fraternity seeks to strengthen and support campus publications by bringing staff members together on a common ground. With the cooperation of its members, the words Pi Delta Epsilon, in all future years, should truly stand for an organization denoting honorary recognition of young journalists and service to the school.

Pi Gamma Mu — Beorc Eh Thorn

Seated: V. Sutherland, B. Gibson, Bishop, Mrs. Graziani, Mrs. Brown

Standing: Korahaes, Caskey, Dr. Moss, A. Gray

R. Baird, J. Jinnett, H. Tanner, N. Purdum, A. Foster, L. Jamison, Mrs. Julia Brown, C. Bishop, Korahaes, A. Gray, L. Stone.

THE purposes of Pi Gamma Mu are to advance the cause of scientific study of social problems, and to instill in the members of the society the ideals of scholarship, the attitude and method of science, and the feeling of social service. The Virginia Gamma Chapter was established on this campus in 1927 by Dr. James Walmsley, professor emeritus.

In November we welcomed the following new members: Celeste Bishop, Barbara Caskey, Betty Collier, Mary Ann Evans, Eugenia Korahaes, Jean Southern, Demetra Steger, and Virginia Sutherland. We chose as our general theme this year the national political situation. Dr. C. G. G. Moss again served as our sponsor. Our officers for the year were the following: president, Bunny Gibson; vice president, Eugenia Korahaes; secretary, Jean Southern; treasurer, Ann Marie Gray.

BEORC Eh Thorn, the English honor society on the Longwood campus, derives its name from three old English runic letters symbolizing the study of literature, the inspiration of creative writing, and the discipline necessary to achieve literary expression. Beorc Eh Thorn had its beginning in 1935 under the leadership of Mr. James Grainger, English department head at the time.

This year we have completed the revision of the constitution, one of our major objectives for the past few years. Highlights of the year have included our informal meeting in November at the home of Mrs. Davis, our annual picnic at Buffalo, the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Grainger, and the fall meeting in which Miss Mary Nichols told of her recent trip to Scotland and England. We were especially happy to sponsor an assembly program this year with Mr. Burgess Johnson as speaker.

The officers for this year were Elizabeth A. Stone, president; Ann Gray, vice president; Nancy Purdum, secretary; and Rebecca Baird, treasurer. Our faculty advisors are Mrs. Mildred Davis and Dr. R. C. Simonini.

Future Teachers of America

FUTURE Teachers of America seeks to create interest in professional leadership and to develop in its members those powers and qualities recognized as desirable assets of professional teachers. The J. L. Jarman Chapter, organized at Longwood in 1930, selects members from juniors and seniors recommended by department heads for their outstanding qualifications as future teachers.

Our year started with an inspiring speaker, Dr. Merle Landrum, who described the activities and programs of the 1952 convention of the Virginia Education Association. Assuming a professional attitude derived in part from Dr. Landrum's inspiring address, we embarked on a project that proved interesting as well as informative. But first, we welcomed eighteen new members into our society.

The majority of our monthly programs centered around problems involved in organizing high-school F. T. A. chapters. Several members also participated in radio programs broadcast on the "Longwood Hour," based on the general theme "Why I Choose Teaching As A Career."

Dr. John P. Wynne, as our advisor, proved very helpful indeed to the chapter as the year progressed. Piloting us until April were: Nancy Lawrence, our president; Helen Crowgey, vice president; Bunny Gibson, secretary; and Babs Booker, treasurer. We regretted to lose our librarian, Elba Castaner, in February. However, Eugenia Korahaes capably filled that position for the remainder of the year.

We feel confident that the year's work has inspired and taught us.

Association of Childhood Education

THE Association of Childhood Education was formed in 1930 by two merging organizations, the International Kindergarten Union and the National Council of Primary Education. This organization is composed of those girls interested in the education of children. The purposes of the Association are to work for the education and well-being of children; to create interest in children at school, in the homes, and in the community, and to raise the standard of professional training for teachers and leaders in the field. To achieve these purposes the Association is guided by a philosophy of education which is flexible and which changes to meet needs in a changing society, particularly in regard to children and the preparation of teachers.

We initiated thirty-five new elementary majors this year. The officers who led us through the year were Joyce Gatling, president; Natalie Lancaster, vice president; Nancy Driskill, secretary; and Sophie Urso, treasurer. Our advisor and friend, Miss Alice E. Carter, gave us help and many suggestions. We thank her sincerely for her guidance in the activities of the organization.

During the year we had interesting and varied programs. Supervisors from the training school spoke to us about what they expected of their student teachers. We had open discussions and forums concerning student teaching. One of the projects of the year was the making of a scrapbook of magazine pictures collected by the members. We gave the scrapbook to the local hospital to be used in the children's ward.

The French and Spanish Clubs

Seated: Blackman, Montagne, Hankins, Lackey
Standing: D. Douglas, Bishop

AS soon as the first semester began, we welcomed our French informant, Denise Montagne, from Paris. We immediately planned our activities for the year, and first on our list was the Circus booth, with peanuts, of course. On December 12 we gave our annual Christmas party with the Spanish Club. Spurred on by the success of this party, we also gave a jukebox dance during April. This year we added something new in the way of meetings: in place of one of our spring meetings we furthered our knowledge of the French language and customs through songs, skits, folk dances, etc.

Our year was highly successful, but we couldn't have succeeded without the help of Miss Draper, our advisor, and Denise.

"¡Se declara abierta la sesion!"

WITH these words the first meeting of the Spanish Club was called to order. Both old and new members planned the year's program. To help us with these plans we had Argentina Matute, our informant from Honduras.

With the French Club, we had a booth at Circus. Those who bought peanuts from us had fun translating the fortunes they found in the bags! Right after Circus we started working on our fiesta, and on the night of December 12, we all arrived in the Rec. dressed as senors, senioritas, and Indians. We finished our Spanish-English cook book, "Que Aproveche," and sent a copy to all those who contributed a recipe. The Spanish movie, presented in the spring was a great success.

Telling each other "Hasta el otono," we ended a successful year.

In October, in honor of the new girls, we had a coffee at the Home Management House. We were happy to have so many new members. At this meeting, we set as our main objective, the promotion of better understanding of Home Economics. In December we sold Christmas cards and were pleased by the success of our project. During February we had a cookie sale. At our March meeting the freshmen presented their program.

This year our club entertained various classes at desserts and teas. The club was well represented at the State Convention of the Virginia Home Economics Association. Betty Jo Jennings was elected this year's vice president of the college section of the state VHEA. Our year's activities were climaxed in May with a tea given in recognition of our seniors. This meeting brought our 1952-1953 club session to a close.

Commercial Club

THE Commercial Club, organized in 1939, has as its purposes to provide the students in the Business Education Department with a more specific knowledge of the various opportunities in the business field and to further their interest in this respect.

The club consists of two classes of membership, active and honorary. The students who major in Business Education are the active members. Professors in the Business Education Department are the honorary members, who constitute an advisory board from which a sponsor is elected annually. At the October meeting the freshmen business majors were invited to learn the purposes of the club. Forty-eight students were initiated and welcomed into the club at the following meeting. At the annual Alpha Kappa Gamma Circus the club had its customary booth with colorful balloons as souvenirs of the gay occasion.

At our Christmas party a skit entitled "Twas the Night Before Christmas" was presented. In the spring the club acted as host to the High School Future Business Leaders of America, who held a district meeting at Longwood Estate.

The officers of the club were Joyce Cheatham, president; Jeanne Mercer, vice president; Laura Trent, secretary; Sylvia West, treasurer; and Anne Lumsden, reporter. Dr. M. L. Landrum, head of the Business Education Department, served as sponsor. To him we express our sincere gratitude for his guidance and interest in the club.

Longwood Library League

LONGWOOD Library League, composed of Library science majors and 248 student staff members, has had a varied program for 1952-1953. Deriving inspiration from the motto "The beginning of a thousand forests lies in a single acorn," Tri-L chose a special program to stimulate the growth of libraries in surrounding counties and also to increase our club membership. The students were given extensive tours of the library as well as of the entire campus.

Our main social event was a picnic at Longwood cabin. We also had several luncheons and informal entertainments. The club acted as host at the Annual Library Conference held the weekend of March 28, 1953. The main speaker was Miss Mary Peacock Douglas. This was the fourth library conference to be held here at Longwood.

Tri-L's officers included Bunny Gibson, vice president, who became acting president in the absence of Liz Browning, who failed to return to Longwood College; Ann Foster, secretary; and Nan Picinich, treasurer. Miss Mildred Kelly, library science professor, served as our capable sponsor, and advisory members include Miss Irving Armstrong, Miss Marion Terry, Mrs. Martha Jenkins, Mrs. Anne Jeffers, and Dr. Beverley Ruffin. Honorary members of our club are Miss Louise Johnson, Elementary School Librarian, and Miss Kate O'Brien, Librarian of the Farmville High School.

We took in four new members in February: Dorothy Stringfield, Barbara Southern, Joyce Welch, and Mrs. Anna Johnson.

Tri-L had a juke-box dance for the purpose of making money for the club. This was very successful and we hope to have such dances next year.

Freshman Commission

THE Freshman Commission of the class of 1956, was installed early last fall at a very impressive service held in the Johns Memorial Episcopal Church.

The commission participated in numerous activities last year. Refreshment booths, where nabs and cokes were sold, were managed by the commission during intermission at the Junior and Senior dances. A juke-box dance was also held for the entertainment of visiting high school students. At Christmas time the commission decorated the Christmas tree in the Rotunda, and after the traditional hanging of the green, the Freshman Commission assembled around the lighted tree to lead the rest of the school in Christmas carols. The commission, as a part of the Y. W. C. A.,

took an active part in the work and projects carried on in the "Y".

In addition to its regular work, the Freshman Commission sold doughnuts and cocoa in the Freshman building on Sunday mornings and with part of the money which was raised, held a cabin party for the members at Longwood estate.

The members of the commission are the following: Margaret Lee Duke, who was chairman of the commission, Betty Huzek Bailey, Anne Shuff, Mary Ann Wright, Barbara Clarke, Louise Wilder, Georgia Jackson, Betty Maas, Garland Webster, Patsy Abernathy, Jane Blake, Muriel Boswell, and Jackie Curlee. The Freshman Commission will be eager to welcome the class of '57 and to help them get adjusted at Longwood.

Granddaughters Club

Burley, S. West, Thwing, Altwegg

ACTUALLY we, the members of the Granddaughter's Club, are not all granddaughters — Longwood granddaughters, that is. Some of us are daughters of alumnae of Longwood. The purpose of our organization is to bring together all present students, who are daughters or granddaughters of former students, and to interest girls who may become future students of Longwood. We also act as hostesses at Founders' Day and show all those who come back the many changes which have taken place since they have left. Most of all, we want to show them that the Longwood spirit of friendliness is the same and that Longwood is glad to have them back again. Being associated with the alumnae as we are, we try to help the alumnae office in locating "lost" alumnae—those who have forgotten to send to the office their married names. In the fall we helped to send out the alumnae magazines.

This fall we were happy to initiate twenty-three new members. After a solemn ceremony, we welcomed our new members with an enjoyable party. At Circus, we had our booth on the midway. No circus is complete without a ring-toss, so we had one. Officers for the year were Pat Altwegg, president; Sylvia West, vice president; Lucy Thwing, secretary; and Jo Burley, treasurer. Our "guiding light" was Miss Wall. Without her pep, energy, and interest in us—well, she was our right hand.

This was a fine year and we, as "granddaughters," are proud to be a part of Longwood.

IF a girl's address is Richmond, and she is a student at Longwood, she is a member of the Richmond Club. We welcomed sixteen freshmen to our group as we started this college year with our annual fall picnic. Our group is social in nature, and, as such, provides us with excellent opportunities to know all those wonderful girls who come from the "Capital of the Old Dominion" to the finest of colleges, our own Longwood. Among our group of forty Richmond girls are graduates of Thomas Jefferson, John Marshall, Hermitage, Highland Springs, Battlefield Park and Collegiate. It's fun to know girls from our rival high schools and find out how fine they really are.

Our club holds four meetings a year, two of which are picnics, one in the fall and one in the spring. During the year, our girls participated in a number of activities, and we were very proud of those who held prominent campus offices. During the Christmas holidays, the Richmond alumnae and the Richmond Club entertained at a tea in honor of high school girls from the Richmond area. We really feel that our club has brought about a closer relationship with our alumnae and we do look forward to our parties with them. At Circus the "Richmond Girls" manned their now famous booth, "The Fishing Pond." We had several juke-box dances which helped to balance our budget.

Our officers for the year were the following: Betsy Hankins, president; Eleanor Koch, vice president; "Be-Beth" Cheatham, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. Cover, faculty sponsor.

Southwest Virginia Club

"... from the north and east and the GREAT SOUTHWEST..." With a song such as this to greet us as we entered the halls of Longwood, it didn't take long for the new members of the Southwest Virginia Club to become absorbed into the friendly world of the campus. They soon found that by their geographical location, they had something in common with a host of other girls—they were from the great Southwest! It seemed that everyone knew someone who knew someone else. We spent many pleasant hours over cokes saying, "Do you remember...?"

Betty Jo Jennings of Pulaski was president of the club, with Hilda Ann Hartis of Bassett, vice president; Mary Ann Ward of Galax, secretary; and Phoebe Ann Warner of Roanoke, treasurer. Our capable advisor was Miss Emily Barksdale.

One of the club's purposes is to establish friendships among the girls from Southwest Virginia and make them feel more at home here. Girls who were seniors in high schools in Southwest Virginia were entertained on the campus during the year.

A new project was undertaken, selling cokes, nabs, and candy at the hockey games and other sporting events. This proved to be an effective way to produce the funds we needed to keep the club functioning properly. We sponsored an annual jukebox dance in January, which everyone enjoyed.

We hope that many new girls from the "great Southwest" will join our club next year to make it a successful and happy year.

Eastern Shore Club

THE beating of surf and the sound of wind rustling through the picturesque pines characterize the small strip of land between the Atlantic Ocean and the Chesapeake Bay, known as the Eastern Shore. Although small in size, this "garden of paradise" is large in the hearts of students here who call it home.

The Eastern Shore Club of Longwood College serves two purposes: it fosters a social fellowship among the girls from the Shore, and it seeks to preserve a close relationship between Shore alumnae and ourselves. During recent years, the shore has been well represented here. Seven new members were added to our club this year: Joan Henderson, Jane Lewis, Patty Kappes, Peggy Colonna, Irene Looney, Mary Jo Henderson, and Margaret Dryden, from the shore of Maryland. Our group also included Frances Marker, Martha Smith, and Ann Edmonds.

Under the leadership of our president, Ann Edmonds, and our sponsor, Mrs. Simonini, we had a successful year. During October, our juke-box dance in the rec drew one of the largest crowds of the year. Shortly before exams, our sponsor entertained us at her home. Shall we ever forget the pleasure of hot cocoa and donuts after long hours of study?

Other officers for the year were: Frances Marker, vice president; and Joan Henderson, secretary-treasurer. We're hoping that all of our members will be with us again next year. The Eastern Shore has been well represented at Longwood for many years, and we hope it will continue to be so represented.

Northern Neck Club

*"Sometimes I stop and wonder
What the next world's going to be.
But St. Peter needn't worry
When I cash in my check,
For my soul will stay forever, in
The good old Northern Neck."*

THE good old Northern Neck is the strip of land which is located between the Potomac and Rappahannock Rivers. This peninsula is composed of five counties: King George, Lancaster, Northumberland, Richmond, and Westmoreland. The hearts of those who live and visit there are captured by the friendliness of the people and the scenic beauty of the peninsula.

In 1926 the Northern Neck Club was organized, having as its motto "Fishing for Knowledge," and this motto is still used. Our club had a most enjoyable and successful year. We welcomed seven new members, who helped to make the club larger than ever before. The new members were given the traditional hamburger feast at the home of Mr. Graham.

In November our club had the pleasure of entertaining twenty-five high school seniors who are interested in our college. A picnic supper was given in their honor. Other events of the year were the picnics of the fall and spring, which were held at Longwood.

Our sincere thanks go to "Charlie Hop," who is our faithful advisor and cherished friend. He has helped our club in every way to become a success.

This year's Club officers were Joyce Richardson, president; Francis Northern, vice president; Margie Smallwood, secretary; and Lynette Talley, treasurer.

Baptist Student Union

BEFORE college opened, the Baptist Student Union began the year with a retreat at Camp Green Bay. This was for the purpose of preparing us to greet the freshmen on Sunday. During Orientation Week we introduced them to B. S. U. through a playlet, "Spirit of B. S. U.," followed by Open House at the Center.

On October 31, thirty-four Baptist students went by bus to Portsmouth for the State B. S. U. Convention. At the Convention Wilma Salmon was elected secretary, and Mr. Wesley Laing was elected faculty advisor.

The Training Union had a "Turkey Trot" on the Sunday before Thanksgiving. Mrs. Jackson White, from Arlington, came to teach a study course on prayer. We all enjoyed supper at the church between classes. In January the Y. W. A. observed its Focus Week. The church library project was launched during the week, and Mr. Wesley Laing led forums on "Race Relations." The week of February 2-8 was Vocational Emphasis Week. Miss Frances Hudgins, missionary to Thailand, was one of our speakers. The pleasures of the week included a banquet celebrating the tenth anniversary of the Center. All the previous student-secretaries were present. The Reverend Walton Connelly was the speaker.

In April our new officers went to Staunton for the Spring Retreat. In May we were ready for our final picnic. Then to Ridgecrest!

We are grateful to Miss Peake, Mr. Bruner, and Mr. Johnson for their loyal support. Our officers for this year were the following: Barbara Booker, Phyllis Isaacs, Eleanor Koch, Rebecca Hines.

Wesley Foundation

 Third row: N. Saunders, Hawthorne, Terrell, E. Johnson, Gillikin, P. Taylor, Tompkins, McClelland, B. Clarke, R. Hamlet, Ellington, Warriner
 Fourth row: Moschler, C. Cross, Tomlinson, P. Brown, Waitman

MISS Malinda Ayres, new Director of Wesley Foundation, was present to greet the council on Thursday, September 18, for our first planning session. The plans included a party in the Student Lounge for all Methodist freshmen and a picnic to be held the following week at Sydnor's Lake. The first banquet for all Methodist students was held in October at Farmville High School with Dr. W. A. Smart from Emory University as our speaker.

In order to show our gratitude to the women of the church, who so kindly donated kitchen items to the Center, we held an open house for them on January 21. We also wish to thank our Campus-Church Relations Committee for their help in this and other functions we have undertaken.

All during examination week the Center was a place for relaxation and refreshments. We were privileged to have Miss Mary Clay Hiner lead us in a very stimulating Sunday school class this year. The whole year was filled with interesting Sunday evening programs with many members of the faculty visiting as speakers. One Sunday evening we were hosts to other youth groups for Union Vespers. We also enjoyed the Fellowship Hour after church every Sunday night. The regular Methodist Student Movement Conferences were a great inspiration.

Our thanks for a successful year go to Malinda, our director, and Rev. Charles O. Kidd, the new minister of the church. Helping Ellen Porter, president, were the other officers: Dot Morris, vice president; Nancy Jane Jones, secretary; and Nancy Birdsall, treasurer.

Westminister Fellowship

WEST-FEL began the new year with a mock political rally. Mrs. C. F. Wilson, the new advisor, extended an invitation to hold the first council meeting on her back terrace, where later an outdoor supper was served. Since our fellowship is composed of both Hampden-Sydney and Longwood students, the Farmville Church and the College Church, at Hampden-Sydney, took turns in serving a supper once a month. Other programs consisted of discussions pertaining to the life of the Christian college student, dramatic presentations of the various members, a communion breakfast, and the annual union service.

For some time many of the Presbyterian Hampden-Sydney students have been giving their Sunday mornings to Oak Grove, an outpost Sunday school. Under the direction of Kay Arrowood, assistant to the pastor of the Farmville Church, and of the Rev. William Rogers, the new pastor at Hampden-Sydney, several of the students from Hampden-Sydney and Longwood divided into teams and took an evangelistic census of children in the surrounding area of Oak Grove who were not attending Sunday school.

The West-Fel newspaper was released four times. It was edited by Dorothy Armstrong, Virginia Phelps, Tom Stewart, and Parke McIlwaine.

The study conference at Roslyn beckoned ten of the members for a busy November weekend. The Month of April was marked by a two-day planning retreat for old and new council members.

The officers for 1952-53 were: Barbara Rickman, president; Roger Elliott, secretary; and Barbara Cotton, treasurer.

Newman Club

Matute, E. Smith, Silvestrini, Cable, Kvasnicka, Montagne

AT the beginning of the school year, the members of the Newman Club were welcomed by Father Fenton in an informal gathering in the anteroom of St. Therese's Church. We decided to hold our meetings weekly at 5 p. m. on Mondays. Judith Cable assumed the responsibilities of president, and did commendable work during the first semester. She left us for a full-time position as a housewife. The secretary, Elba Castaner of New York City, also left us upon her graduation in February. The club has now been greatly reduced by the loss of two of our members; nevertheless, the four remaining members will continue their pleasant association next year.

One of our projects during first semester was selling Christmas cards to other students. The outcome was very successful, and we hope to be as successful with this project next Christmas season. We look forward to an increase in membership and to a greater activity next year. The new members were greatly impressed by the accomplishments of the club. All meetings were successfully conducted by Father Fenton. At these meetings we discussed the main themes of the Bible, and each member shared her knowledge with the others. The discussions consisted of chosen subjects from the New Testament. Contributions were made by Doris Kvasnicka, from Petersburg, Virginia; Argentina Matute, from Tegucigalpa, Honduras; Erita Smith, from Ridgewood, New Jersey; and Denise Montagne, from Paris, France. We are hoping to add many new members to the club; we also welcome all non-Catholic visitors to our church.

THE National Canterbury Association is a fellowship of Episcopal faculty and student groups. Organized in 1918 at New York Teacher's College, it is now found on almost every college and university campus throughout the country. Our Canterbury Club is composed of students from Longwood and Hampden-Sydney and meets in the Parish House of Johns Memorial Episcopal Church. The name "Canterbury" was chosen because of its connection with the Mother See of the Anglican Communion, Canterbury Cathedral in England.

The purpose of the Canterbury Club is expressed in its motto Pro Christo per Ecclesiam. The purpose elaborated becomes multiple: "to provide an opportunity for students to receive the teachings and life of Christ through the faith and practice of the Episcopal Church; to send out into the total life of the colleges, students who will play a full part in the life of the institutions in which it exists; to continually question its own life and examine its program; to provide for expression of its aims through prayer and the sacraments, study, service, giving, and evangelism; and especially to witness in our colleges and universities for the Lordship of Christ over the whole life of mankind; to initiate a missionary movement among Episcopal students; and finally to become more Christ-centered as individuals and as a fellowship."

As the Parish House is considered "on campus," it is used throughout the week for recreation, suppers and other meetings.

The Choir

WE, the members of the Longwood College Choir, are proud of the progress we have made this past year. The inspiring guidance and direction of our leader, Dr. John W. Molnar, and the hard work of the entire membership of the choir have made this progress possible. We are also glad of a minor item of progress, the one-half credit now given each semester for participation in the choir.

Our first public appearance of the year took place during the Christmas season. The Hampden-Sydney Glee Club and we presented our annual Christmas concert in Jarman Hall. The concert was repeated at Hampden-Sydney the following night. We were proud of our soloists: Sarah Harvie, Winston Johnson, and Elizabeth Stone. In March, on Founder's Day of Longwood College, we were happy to sing for our guests in Jarman Hall. Included in our program was Faure's "Requiem." For our first off-campus concert, we were privileged to sing in Ginter Park Presbyterian Church of Richmond during the month of March. In April, the Longwood College Choir, sponsored by the Federation of Women's Clubs of Arlington, presented a concert in Arlington. We were most graciously received and we enjoyed the trip. Our closing concert was the annual spring concert performed in Jarman Hall.

Our officers for the year were Winston Johnson, president; Dolly Horn, vice president; Dorothy Morris, secretary; Wilma Salmon, treasurer; and Lu Beavers, accompanist. We are grateful to Miss Virgilia Bugg, our sponsor, for her interest in our activities.

Longwood Players

THE Longwood Players, under the direction of Dr. C. L. S. Earley, had a successful season. The Glass Menagerie, a tragedy of three lives, was presented in November. Sally Wilson, Isabelle Karnes, Tom Moore, and Ed Stanfield, of Hampden-Sydney, played with distinction. Dr. Earley's play-production class, along with the Longwood Players, constructed a realistic set. In March, the Longwood Players and Hampden-Sydney Jongleurs presented the second play, Death Takes A Holiday, expressing optimistic philosophy concerning the problems of love and death.

In December the troupe gave an assembly program consisting of three one-act plays. The Blue Tie was directed by Barbara White. Included in the cast were Marjorie Harris, Norma Jean Croft, and Beth Kent. Ellen Porter and Florence Blake were seen in Tennessee Williams' tragedy, At Liberty. Nancy Tanley, James Parker, and Woody Rice, a member of the Hampden-Sydney Jongleurs, were presented in Anton Chekov's charming and delightful comedy, The Boor. The purpose of preparing plays was to find hidden dramatic talent in the students.

During the Thanksgiving holidays the Players sponsored its second trip to New York to attend several Broadway productions. In October the organization sponsored the Barter Theatre's production of The Curious Savage, in which Longwood's "first lady of the stage," Cleo Holladay had a leading role. Another veteran of the Longwood stage, Robert Porterfield, the founder of the nationally famous Barter Theatre, came to our campus in February to play a leading role in Owen Wister's play The Virginian.

The officers for the year were the following: president, Barbara White; vice president, Nancy Nelson; secretary, Gay-nelle Edwards; treasurer, Ellen Porter; and technical director, Tom Moore. The Longwood Players worked throughout the year to bring the theatre into the heart of the campus. With the help of each student, this goal has been reached.

Cotillion Club

THE Cotillion Club functioned very successfully this year. With the beginning of the fall semester, thirty-two upperclassmen were invited to join us; in the spring eighty-seven freshmen received bids. Those accepting the bids wore the traditional yellow ribbons around their ankles for one week.

Friday, April 10, 1953, dawned early for 119 "goats," who began their rounds from room to room of the club members to clean and do small tasks expected of them. At sunset, their weary day was not quite over; they had to report to "goat court." Tired and aching, our wonderful new members could crawl into bed with only one more big task to do, decorating for the dance.

Our annual Cotillion Club dance was held on the night of April 11, 1953, in the college gym. Lovely net and organdy evening dresses of pastel shades and dainty fluffiness presented a beautiful background to the music of Ralph Marterie and his orchestra. The setting was breath-taking as we entered the gym and saw the colored crepe paper streamers and spring flowers. Gay programs, which were given out at the door, added to the festivities of this occasion. Margaret Taylor led the figure.

Every member cooperated to make this dance the most enjoyable of the year. Mr. Boyd Coyner again helped us to make this year a memorable one for the Cotillion Club. Janice Pinkard served as our president; Betsy Hankins very efficiently carried out the duties of business manager. Anne Murphy acted as our responsible secretary and treasurer.

Chi

Jones, Abbitt, Hall, Hundley, Tanner, Cox, Hankins, Brothers

IN 1900 the group known as Chi was first organized. The spirit of Chi is as old as the college itself.

You have seen a bright red skull on the laundry walk, a symbolic banner on the athletic field, a group of girls in white chanting to the tune of "Chloe." These are evidences of an organization whose purposes are an integral part of the spirit of Longwood.

In recent years Chi has given the corner stones of Edith Stevens Hall and Jarman Hall, and this year the group launched a project to landscape the dell at Longwood Estate. Although plans are well underway, this project will take more than one year for completion.

One night in the spring the leaping flames of a bonfire revealed our identities as Lucy Page Hall, Anne Jones, Ann Keith Hundley, Betsy Hankins, Helen Tanner, Judy Cox, Betty Abbitt, and Polly Brothers. Circling the fire and holding our torches high, we commended those girls who have shown a deep devotion and loyalty to our college.

Our thanks and appreciation go to Charlie Hop for his never failing interest and support.

ATHLETICS are a major part of Longwood. All students are members of the Athletic Association. This organization is governed by the Athletic Association Council, which is composed of four officers elected by the student body, the managers of the various sports, and Miss Iler, our indispensable advisor. The managers are selected by the officers of the association with the approval of an advisor to that particular sport. These managers work with the captains of individual teams to see that activities are carried through as scheduled. The council seeks to provide a well-rounded sports program for the college. The new students immediately caught the interest and enthusiasm displayed by the upperclassmen and joined in with the true Longwood spirit.

THE Athletic Association sponsors one of the college's most important events each year—the winning of the Color Cup. Sister classes support each other and strive to win each event contested. Each year the cup bears the colors of the classes winning the most events during the preceding year. The A. A. also sponsors two other important events during the college year. A song contest is held in October, and at the beginning of class hockey games, "Color Rush." The fastest runners from each class vie in races held on the athletic field, and the winners may place their color banners on the front of the various college buildings. This year, Red and White placed the most banners on the buildings.

Longwood's varsity hockey team had another successful season under the leadership of Nell Bradshaw Green, as captain, and Sue Webb, as manager. The team participated in the State Hockey Tournament. The varsity basketball team also saw a successful year with Nell Green as captain. Class volleyball games ran close on the heels of basketball, and girls hurried to complete their eight practices. Archery, tennis, and softball came with Spring. Many girls participated in the tennis singles tournament, and two Green and Whites, Helen Castros and Clara Borum, reached the finals.

The Athletic Association gives, each year, one of the most outstanding individual awards of the college. Blue and white blazers are awarded at the beginning of each year to those seniors who have been outstanding in athletics. The awards are based on a point system, consisting of sportsmanship, variety of participation, and scholarship. This year, the white blazer was awarded to Clara Borum, and Nell Green, Betty Tyler, and Sue Webb received blue blazers.

THE H₂O Club fulfilled its purpose of promoting swimming on the college campus this year with the able assistance of our faculty advisor, Miss Rebecca Brockenbrough. Working with Miss Brockenbrough were our president, Roberta Wiatt; secretary, Ann Crowder; and treasurer, Ilia DesPortes.

In the fall Ann Crowder was elected to head our annual swimming pageant. Lois Crutchfield helped Ann prepare for the pageant. The theme, "Santa's Inspection," was presented through a dialogue by Santa Claus, Joanne Steck, and Mrs. Santa, Isabelle Karnes. During the pageant, Jumping Jacks, Dogs, Christmas Trees, Stars, Rag Dolls, Mechanical Dolls, Brownies, and Snowflakes performed for the observers. There were the traditional fancy divers and clowns to entertain us. The finale was the formation of an H₂O with candles. We were able to include many more people and non-swimmers in this year's pageant. The club would like to commend the non-members who worked with us to make the pageant a success.

In March, Madison and Longwood teams competed in the Longwood College pool. In April our team traveled to William and Mary for a similar meet. Ann Crowder, one of our student swimming instructors, worked with the Red Cross in preparing many of us for the instructor's course. In the spring a dinner was given by the club at Longwood Estate in honor of the new members.

This year each member helped with recreational swimming, thus carrying out the purpose of the club—"To promote swimming."

Monogram Club

THE Monogram Club's main purposes are to stimulate interest in sports and to recognize athletic ability, scholarship, and sportsmanship.

In October new members were elected into the club. They included Betty Abbott, Eleanor Koch, Johanna Biddlecomb, Lib Boswell, Else Wenté, Patsy Sanford, Lucy Mann, Roberta Wiatt, Edith Frame, Mary Hurt Peery, Ann Parkinson, Ann Mallory, and Mason Moore. The following day the new members wore blue and white ribbons, which are the colors of the club.

Credit for the success of our Circus booth goes to Helen Castros, who decorated it in blue and white with the L. C. monogram in the background.

We sponsored "Red-and-White Day" on February 13, and "Green-and-White Day" on March 17. Before the class hockey games, green and red hockey sticks were sold by the club. This tradition helps to promote class spirit at Longwood.

The cabin at Longwood Estate was again our responsibility, and we found the organizations signing up for its use on the week-ends.

Our officers for the year were Ann Crowder, president; Beverly Marsh, secretary; and Lou Jamison, treasurer.

The old members included Helen Castros, Clara Borum, Nell Green, Ann Crowder, Ann Jones, Lou Jamison, Sarah Harvie, Beverly Marsh, Joanne Steck, Betty Tyler and Sue Webb. Much gratitude goes to Miss Iler, who served as our advisor. We can truthfully say that our motto "Sportsmanship Always" was held high throughout the year.

"BIRD in the night, calling, calling," echoed long after "The Mocking Bird," an original dance drama was presented. This second serious attempt at dance drama by Orchesis exacted the cooperative effort of every member of the Dance Club. Peggy Hood as "David," Anne Murphy and Nancy Tanley in the dual role of "Drusilla," Gail Dixon as "Miz Anne," and Margaret Taylor as "Aunt Cissie," were "out of this world" in their roles. Ilia Des Portes, Mary Hurt Peery, Ann Crowder, Nan Bland, and Helen Waitman gave strong assistance. All members of the club took part in this study of a static family portrait in an attempt to make it reach the proportions achieved by the long-remembered "Plum Tree" presented in 1950.

Orchesis successfully offered a new opportunity in dance choreography, which serves the purpose of a workshop course for those interested in dance as teachers or as private individuals.

Several members took solo leads in May Day. Betsy Hankins as the Wandering Minstrel, who narrated throughout the three-episodal pageant, was supported by Joyce Quick as the Scotch Highlander, and Peggy Hood as the roguish leprechaun.

It was an interesting year, a very valuable one for us under the leadership of Anne Murphy as president; Margaret Taylor, secretary-treasurer; Ann Crowder, costume chairman; and Lou Jamison, historian. Again we owe our success to the wonderful guidance and direction of Mrs. Emily K. Landrum, to whom we are most grateful.

PAN-HELLENIC COUNCIL

THE GREEKS

Sigma Sigma Sigma

SEPTEMBER found a group of happy Sigmas working and planning for another fine year together. During fall rushing we were thrilled to welcome Mary Ann King, Betsy Hankins, Claire Kreienbaum, Mary Ellen Booth, and Peggy Ilyus.

The year has been happy and successful for us. The diamonds on their fingers gave reason for the sparkle in the eyes of Mary Ellen, Margaret, Sarah Ann and Nat. Carolyn, an "engaged one" of long standing, was chosen to be the sweetheart of Theta Chi fraternity at Hampden-Sydney. Polly and Nat were chosen to appear in Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges.

Shirley Willhide, Beth Kent, Patty Derring, Mary Ann King, and Margaret Taylor, one of the maids-of-honor, were our beauties elected to May Court. Margaret was also elected figure leader for the Cotillion Club dance.

Spring rushing was soon upon us, and our chapter roll was made complete with the addition of Jane Blake, Dale Brothers, Joyce Clingenpeel, Jean Coghill, Margaret Duke, Ellen Thomas, and Shirley Willhide.

Our officers have won our love and gratitude: Nat Lancaster, president; Jan Van Horn, vice-president; Betty Benton, recording secretary; Margaret Taylor, corresponding secretary; and June Johns, treasurer. We could not have done without the patience and guidance of our own Miss Trent.

Kappa Delta

STORING happy summer memories for bull sessions late in the year, Kappa Deltas returned to Longwood in September ready to settle down. Though a little saddened by the absence of our sisters who graduated last June, we were all indeed delighted to see our beloved advisor and true friend, Miss Florence Stubbs.

In the fall, we proudly congratulated six of our members who were tapped by AKG: Helen Tanner, Barbara Caskey, Celeste Bishop, Janet Wiggins, Mary Denny Wilson, and Pat Altwegg. Mary Denny was also chosen ring-master of Circus and Caskey reigned as queen.

Many Kappa Deltas took an active part in school activities. We were honored and thrilled to have the highest sorority average in scholarship. We were proud to have Jean Partridge Drewry elected to the May Court.

With February came rushing, and we welcomed Liz DeHaven, Fannie Scott, Gail Patrick, Marian Ruffin, Betsy Welbon, Kay Pelter, Pat Kelly, and Georgia Jackson.

Once again it is spring. We bid farewell to the KD seniors, and extend our heartiest thanks to our alumnae who have been invaluable to us throughout the year. For a successful year we are indebted to our leaders: Helen Tanner, president; Mary Elva Robinson, vice-president; Nancy Driskill, secretary; and Celeste Bishop, treasurer.

Alpha Sigma Alpha

FULL of news and views from the National Golden Anniversary Convention that was held in Roanoke, the ASA's opened their "Castle" door in September for the best year ever.

We were proud of Ann Keith, who was the editor of The Virginian. She was recognized by Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities and AKG. Others who took part in school activities were: Libby McClung, chairman of the Year's Calendar; Patsy Sanford, secretary of AA; Ann Carter Wendenburg, chairman of the YWCA membership committee; and Jean Carol Parker, Freshman Counselor.

In the fall we welcomed four new sisters: "Be-Beth" Cheatham, Anne Glenn, Jean Carol Parker, and Trianne Lampkin. Our Founders' Day was a memorable occasion. We had a formal banquet in the Tea Room and invited the Farmville Alumnae Chapter. The theme was "Friendship Is A Gift So Rare." The program was well planned by Libby.

Spring rushing brought us great pleasure, for we gained into our sisterhood Anne Shuff, Anne Snyder, Sue Upson, Julie Moncure, Evelyn Hall, Becky Fizer, Susie Mellor, Sue Garber, Helen Marie Wood, Jane Hall, Loretta Brooking, Patsy Abernathy, Nancy Sydnor, and Audrey Owen.

We wish to express our sincere gratitude to our capable officers: Mary B., president; Libby, first vice president; Jackie, second vice president; Ann Carter, secretary; Gail, treasurer. Our heart-felt thanks go to Miss Wall for guidance, inspiration, and encouragement through the year.

Zeta Tau Alpha

THERE was a buzz of activity in the Zeta room that first day in September. Jean had much to tell everyone about her trip to the Zeta Convention in California, and everyone was eager to talk about the beach party and other summer activities.

Comment upon how we missed last June's graduates soon changed to a realization of pride in this year's seniors, too: Jonesie, president of YWCA; Steck, president of Student Standards and vice-president of the class; and Janice, president of the Cotillion Club.

Fall rushing brought to us Joyce Quick, Dot Morris, Sharon Heuser, and Dot Douglas, who is president of the Sophomore Class. Spring rushing brought Dot

Armstrong, Ann Field Brooking, Betty Copenhagen, Margie Harris, Joyce Hunt, Barbara Mays, Virginia Lee Obenchain, Nancy Saunders, Ann Weatherholtz, and Frances Young, girls of whom we are very proud.

In April the Province Convention of ZTA, held on our own campus, proved a tremendous success. Zeta members of the Rotunda staff are Jeanie, Shirley, Phoebe, Dot. D., and Mason. Donnie is on the Virginian staff.

Under the capable leadership of Jean Jinnett, president; Joanne Steck, vice-president; Donna Kunkler, secretary; and Mason Moore, treasurer; and our wonderful advisor, Miss Leola Wheeler, we have enjoyed the happiest and best year ever.

Pi Kappa Sigma

AFTER a wonderful vacation and many happy memories of our big week at the beach, the Pi Kaps returned to Longwood. We were pleased with the newly painted room. Ann Edmonds and Ann Watkins became Pi Kap sisters after fall rushing.

November 17, our Founder's Day, found us all sleepily making our way to the College Shoppe for breakfast.

Senior Dance was a huge success with our own "Cookie" returning to lead the figure. Christmas brought Chalice back with a sparkling diamond. Then spring rushing brought us Betsy Berry, Bobbie Clark, Norma Jean Croft, Jackie Curlee, Jane Lohr, Suzanne Roberts, Nancy Stark, Marie Swecker, Bev Taylor, Louise Turner, and Garland Webster.

Honors came our way too. AKG and

Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities claimed Betty Abbitt and Sarah Harvie. Sue and Nellie proudly wore blazers. "B. A." made a lovely Madonna in the Christmas Pageant. Joan De Alba made a wonderful animal trainer in Circus, and Nancy Tanley was a Circus representative for the sophomores. The Pi Kaps were proud of their May Court beauties: Sue Webb, queen; Ann Murphy, maid-of-honor; Betty Abbitt, Sylvia Reames, Nell Green, Frances Motley, Nancy Tanley, Jeanne Lafoon, and Marie Swecker.

We sincerely thank our advisor, Miss Iler; our patrons, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Graham; and our officers: Betty Islin, president; Betty Abbitt, vice-president; Jane Branch, recording secretary; and Jean Lafoon, treasurer.

Alpha Sigma Tau

WHEN the first leaves of autumn fell, we AST's turned our thoughts again to Longwood and another wonderful year together. During the summer, Helen Castros and Margaret Sutphin served as delegates to the National Convention of Alpha Sigma Tau in Chicago. How excited we were to learn that our own "Margie" was crowned Queen of the Convention!

With fall rushing we welcomed with pride Marian Lowry and Mary Meade Robertson. Our annual Founder's Day Banquet was a great success. With pleasure we packed a box of Christmas toys for the children of the Pine Mountain Settlement.

Spring rushing brought Stephanie Bauder, Muriel Boswell, Diana Burgess, Mary

Alice Ellington, Roberta Hamlet, Nancy Hartman, Molly Harvey, Bettye Maas, Katherine Miller, Jean Moseley, and Louise Wilder. How proud we were of Margie Sutphin, Martha Donaldson, and Barbara Assaid, who were chosen to be on May Court this spring. We jumped for joy when AKG claimed "Castros," and she was chosen to appear in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

We wish to thank our officers: Margaret Sutphin, president; Sonia Kile, vice president; Dee Steger, secretary; and Mary Hurt Peery, treasurer. We are grateful to Miss Bedford, our advisor, for her willing helpfulness, understanding, and guidance through the year.

Theta Sigma Upsilon

AFTER a summer of fun, we Thetas were ready to begin a new school year in September. We missed those who left us, but fall rushing brought us five lovable new sisters: Lillian Guthrie, Hilda Hartis, Isabelle Karnes, Anna Mae Sanders, and Jackie White.

We were proud of our officers this year. They were as follows: Helen Barrow, president; Margie Morris, vice president; Mary Jean Carlyle, secretary; Billie Tomlinson, treasurer. We also wish to express our devotion and thanks to Mrs. Marvin Schlegel for her wonderful guidance and inspiration throughout the year.

This year has been a busy one for us. Lillian ably served as president of the Pan-Hellenic Council. Isabelle pleased us as

"Laura" in The Glass Menagerie. Mary Bennett returned to school in September as Mrs. John Mills Barksdale and Margie became Mrs. Warren Morris in December. This year "Buzzie," Joyce, and Lillian received diamonds. We're happy for all of them.

In February, we welcomed Paula Dovel's return to Longwood.

After spring rushing, we happily welcomed seven new pledges: Nan Bland, Pat Brown, Virginia Crocker, Doris Kvasnicka, Suzanne Prillaman, Effie Sydnor, and Mary Ann Wright.

We bid farewell again to our beloved sisters who will not return next year, but the rest of us will be back to continue our work and fun in Theta Sigma.

Delta Sigma Epsilon

EARLY in the fall many eager Delta Sigmans returned to Longwood after a summer of fun and frolic. Nancy returned with a "Mrs." preceding her name. We were all proud of Phyllis, who won the Virginia 4-H Electric Contest and a trip to Chicago.

All of us eagerly plunged into fall rushing. We were happy to welcome as sisters Joyce Cheatham, Barbara Hough, Audrey Morse, Mildred Parker, Marjorie Smallwood, Lucy Mann, and Wilma Salmon.

The chapter room was gayly arrayed for our Christmas party. The tree was beautiful, and there were surprises for everyone.

We are proud of our leaders: president, Nancy Calohan; vice president, Virginia

Berry; recording secretary, Nellie Lucy; corresponding secretary, Elizabeth Stone; treasurer, Joyce Gatling; and Pan-Hellenic representative, Ann Mallory. The highlight of this year was our banquet at Longwood Estate. Our national officer, Mrs. Leland P. Deck, was our guest of honor.

After spring rushing we welcomed Phyllis Campbell, Elizabeth Pancake, Charlotte Fitts and Diane Hanson as sisters.

To Miss Winnie Hiner, our sponsor, we extend our deepest gratitude and appreciation for her advice and encouragement throughout the year. At the end of a wonderful year we bid farewell to our beloved seniors: Nancy Calohan, Joyce Gatling, Carolyn Michael, Joyce Cheatham, Virginia Hansel, and Liz Stone.

AND so the year 1952-53 draws to a close. The class of '53 bids a fond farewell; the '53 Virginian is completed. Next year will bring back some of the same faces, some new ones, and the '54 Virginian. To Mary Anne King and Patricia Altwegg, next year's editor and business manager, we wish great success and a staff equal to the fine one we had this year.

We would like to express our appreciation to the following who have helped to make this book a reality:

LYNCHBURG ENGRAVING COMPANY for their aid in layout, art work, and engravings. Our special thanks to Mr. M. L. Glover for his advice and friendship.

J. P. BELL COMPANY, INC., for printing our book, and Mr. W. L. Burton for his invaluable assistance and friendship.

ANDRE STUDIO for its excellent group and individual photographs.

MISS NANCY FOSTER for her proof reading, and criticism as our literary advisor.

MISS VIRGINIA BEDFORD for her suggestions and aid as our art advisor.

MR. T. A. McCORKLE for being the wonderful and indispensable advisor that he is. He was our inspiration, guiding light, and right-hand man all rolled into one.

THE STUDENT BODY, FACULTY, and ADMINISTRATION for their interest, support, and cooperation.

THE STAFF for their untiring efforts, patience, and cooperation in making the 1953 Virginian.

As our work draws to a close, we feel a sense of satisfaction and pride. We hope that you will find here what we have tried so hard to create—memories of a wonderful year at Longwood which will always remain alive within the pages of this book.
